1. In 1872, the Equal Rights Party nominated Victoria Woodhull as their presidential candidate. She lost, but she inspired many women to continue to fight for their political rights, including suffrage.

What are two ways that Americans can participate in their democracy?
- a) Help with a camp
- b) Run for office
- c) Vote
- d) Write to a political party

2. While campaigning for a World War 1 peace treaty, President Wilson suffered a severe stroke. Although the President could have left office, First Lady Edith Wilson ran the executive branch until the end of her husband's term (1921).

If the President can no longer serve, who becomes President?
- a) the First Lady
- b) the Secretary of State
- c) the Speaker of the House
- d) the Vice-President

3. In 1933, Frances Perkins became the first woman to join the Cabinet, serving as the Secretary of Labor during the Great Depression and World War II.

What does the President's Cabinet do?
- a) addresses the President
- b) admires the President
- c) advertises the President
- d) advises the President

4. In 1953, Oveta Culp Hobby became the 2nd woman to serve in the Cabinet when she was named the head of the then newly formed Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. In 1979, this department was re-organized into two separate departments.

What are two Cabinet-level positions?
- a) Secretary of Defense and Security
- b) Secretary of Education
- c) Secretary of Health & Human Services
- d) Secretary of Welfare

5. Madeleine Albright, Condoleezza Rice, and Hillary Clinton are the highest-ranking women in the history of the Cabinet, having held the post of Secretary of State. Under our Constitution, some powers belong to the federal government. What is one power of the federal government?
- a) to create political parties
- b) to declare public holidays
- c) to make treaties
- d) to provide a driver’s license

6. Nikki Haley recently resigned as the Governor of South Carolina (2011-2017) to become the US Ambassador to the United Nations. As Governor, she was the head of her state’s executive branch.

Who is the Governor of your state now?
- a) Gina Raimondo
- b) Kate Brown
- c) Susana Martinez
- d) Other: ______________________

7. As the first woman to serve as _____ (2007-11), Nancy Pelosi was second in line to the Presidency.

If both the President and the Vice President can no longer serve, who becomes President?
- a) the First Lady
- b) the Secretary of State
- c) the Speaker of the House
- d) the Vice-President

8. After serving as the First Lady, a US Senator, and Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton ran for president in 2017. Although she received almost 2.9 million more popular votes than her opponent, she lost the electoral vote. Rumor has it that she is thinking about running for Mayor of the largest city in the United States, which is also home to the Statue of Liberty.

Where is the Statue of Liberty?*
- a) Hudson Bay
- b) Library Island
- c) New York City
- d) New York Harbor

BONUS: A Mayor is the head of a city’s executive branch. Who is the Mayor of your city?